

ALLEN COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE
TRANSFER PROGRAM TO THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS
Athletic Training

Number to call at KU for advising: (785) 864-5552

Website: www.soe.ku.edu/hses

The University of Kansas welcomes transfer students to the Athletic Training Program provided the following criteria are met.

- Transfer students must follow the university’s policy on transfer of credit.
- Transfer students must also have met the admission requirements and be accepted to the School of Education
- Transfer students must meet the admission requirements for the Athletic Training Program
- Transfer students must be available for an on-campus interview in May.
- Transfer students must have previous experience of at least one semester working under the direct supervision of a Certified Athletic Trainer. That ATC must be one of the three references for the application.
- Transfer students must complete HSES 351 their first spring semester on campus.
- Space must be available for acceptance of additional students due to the limited and selective admissions policy of the program (if space is not available, the transfer student must apply during the next enrollment period).
- Transfer students must complete 800 hours of clinical experience while at KU to meet the state of Kansas Athletic Training Licensure requirements.

Due to the structure and sequence of the Athletic Training program, transfer students that meet these requirements will be admitted to the program and placed in the Junior (Level I) class. The only core AT course that may be transferred is HSES 250 or its equivalent. Program authorities reserve the right to accept or deny transfer of credit for Athletic Training courses.

1. The following courses, or the KU equivalents for transfer students, must be completed prior to applying into the Education program:
 - a. ENGL 101 Composition and ENGL 102 Composition and Literature 6
 - b. BIOL 100 and 102 Principles of Biology with Lab 5
 - c. BIOL 240 Human Anatomy 3
 - d. MATH 101 Algebra 3
 - e. A core Soc Science/Arts/Humanities listed below 3
 - f. HSES 250, 251, 260, and 269 10
- Admission to the School of Education does not guarantee admissions to the Athletic Training Education program
- Students must earn a minimum “B” in all core AT courses (Bold)
- All italicized courses can only be taken once admitted into the School of Education.
- Students must have departmental and SOE approval to substitute any course.
- Minimum total hours required for graduation: 126. Please request a graduation check on your program soon after admissions.
- Students who complete the program in athletic training will qualify to take the BOC certification test.
- All clinical education (practicum courses) must be done at the University of Kansas or at another site that has been approved by the HSES Department.
- No grades lower than “C” will be accepted for HSES, ENGL, MATH, and Soc/Art/Human elective courses
- Application into the program is available here: <http://soe.ku.edu/undergraduate-hses-admissions/>
