

The Coca-Cola Scholarship For Children of KU Faculty and Staff

Application Process:

- If you indicated on your “Undergraduate Application for Admission and Scholarships” that you are a dependent of a KU employee, that indication is sufficient for you to be considered for the scholarship. You need not submit this application form to be considered.
- If you did not indicate on your “Undergraduate Application for Admissions and Scholarships” that you are a dependent of a KU employee, you must submit this application form to be considered for the Coca-Cola Scholarship.

Scholarship Guidelines:

- The scholarship is only available to eligible students pursuing their first undergraduate degree. Graduate, non-degree, and special students are not eligible.
- The number and amount of these scholarships will depend on fund availability. If awarded, the scholarship will apply to the 2007-2008 academic year.

Scholarship Eligibility:

Based on available funds, one-year scholarships ranging from $250 to $1,000 may be awarded to transfer students who:

- Are the children (or step-children claimed as dependents) of benefits eligible KU faculty or staff members (KU affiliates included);
- Enroll as degree-seeking, full-time students (12 or more credit hours) per semester.
- Transfer students will be awarded competitively based on their cumulative transfer grade point average.

Scholarship Renewal:

- Students may be eligible for another Coca-Cola Scholarship for each subsequent year of the undergraduate program as long as the student meets the terms of the scholarship renewal guidelines and eligibility.
- Transfer applicants who receive a Coca-Cola Scholarship will be considered for automatic renewal of the scholarship as soon as grades are available for the Spring semester 2007.
- Subsequent awards will be awarded competitively based on the applicant’s KU cumulative grade point average and upon the availability of funds. A minimum cumulative GPA of 2.50 is required to be considered.
